

STOMACH AT FAULT

Indications of Disturbed Digestion Are Often Mistaken for Other Disorders and Cause Unnecessary Alarm.

Palpitation of the heart does not imply that the vital organ is diseased. Pain in the back does not necessarily mean kidney disease.

Headache does not often indicate that there is anything wrong with your head. All of these symptoms are caused by stomach trouble and when this is righted the alarming symptoms disappear. If you have them look to the condition of your stomach for the cause before you start to treat the symptoms rather than the disease.

If the sufferer from any form of stomach trouble is pale and the blood thin, the first step toward restoring the activity of the stomach is to improve the condition of the blood. A supply of rich, well-oxygenated blood is necessary to the processes of digestion and with it, if errors in diet are avoided, nature will work a cure. This is known as the tonic treatment for indigestion and is illustrated by the experience of Mrs. C. L. Ritchey, of No. 1401 20th street, Rock Island, Ill., who owes her recovery from stomach trouble to a thorough trial of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She says:

"I was sick for several months with stomach trouble and nervousness. I had no appetite and what I ate pained me and formed gas. Later I had palpitation of the heart. It was almost impossible for me to get any sleep, I became run down, weak, despondent and discouraged and could not bear to have any noise around me.

"At first I thought the doctor was helping me but I really became no better. When I heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I made up my mind to give them a trial. It was only a short time before I began to feel better, had a good appetite, could rest well and I was cured after taking only a few boxes. I always depend upon Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and recommend them heartily.

The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills by building up the blood so that it can nourish and strengthen the weakened digestive system has made hundreds of cures in the most severe stomach disorders. A new edition of the booklet, "What to Eat and How to Eat," is free on request. Send a postal for it. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold in all drug stores, or sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50 by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Robert F. Bliss was operated upon for appendicitis at the Heaton hospital Sunday night. His case was serious but he seems to be doing well.

The Klondike machine, which was taken from the Standish cigar store a few days ago, was ordered destroyed yesterday at a hearing held before Justice of the Peace Wing.

Miss Annie Corry, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Corry, is suffering from a light form of infantile paralysis, which it is thought she contracted from Representative Howard, whom she, as a trained nurse, cared for a short time ago. His death was due to paralysis. She is able to be about the house.

A crossed electric wire in a switch in Bethany church Saturday afternoon, set fire in a partition, which was discovered just in time to prevent a serious conflagration. The fire alarm was sounded and chemicals and water used to extinguish the flames. The damage will be about $50, but the church was not in order for services Sunday, though there was no way of lighting the edifice for the evening service. Faulty insulation was the cause of the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Young of East Montpelier are in Providence, R. I., to attend the funeral of Ezra K. Perkins, a brother of Mrs. Young, which occurred there at the Butler hospital. Mr. Perkins was a former resident of this city, owning a large farm. He was born in Plainfield, January 11, 1857, and married Miss Alice A. Wheaton of Barre, who survives him. In 1884, he went to Providence, where he has been in the lumber business, being president of the firm known as the Perkins Brothers company. He was one of the incorporators and for many years one of the directors of the Citizens' Savings bank and in 1892-3, was a member of the general assembly. In 1900 he was named as Citizens' candidate for mayor of Providence.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Howe's Pictures Include King Edward's Funeral Services.

"Just a minute Mr. Photographer," said the late King Edward as he was about to be photographed, "not without Caesar." And so even in death—in his last journey through London, it was again "not without Caesar"—the pet dog. As the most magnificent funeral pageant in all history winds its courses through London and Windsor, immediately behind the gun carriage bearing the coffin, crown and sceptre, may be seen the mournful Caesar trotting alongside of his attendant. It is a strange scene—this solitary little dog surrounded by all the pomp and pageantry of kings, princes, field marshals, admirals, potentates, dignitaries and ambassadors from everywhere, including our own, Col. Roosevelt. Every detail of it will be shown with remarkable distinctness in the opera house on Wednesday, Oct. 5.

As an indication of its importance and perfection, the Philadelphia Press says of it: "For the first time in the history of moving pictures these scenes reproduce not only all the glory and glitter of this historic occasion, but such admirable judgment is exercised that the audience feels it is 'trailing closely' with the mighty ones of the earth and becomes perfectly familiar with their faces, carriage and mannerisms without the discomfort of being brushed in the London throngs."

But the program includes other features, such as the ride up the Eiffel tower; the eruption of Mt. Etna; the floods of Norway; a Japanese jubilee; a marvelous track-laying machine; life on a training ship; the cinematograph, etc., which make the Lyman H. Howe travel festival, one of the most important bookings of the season.

The River That Has No Ending.

"Do not be afraid of MacDonald. Tomorrow, at noon, Hilda, ma chere, I will meet you at the fork of the Little Bear river, and there will be a priest, and there you will be my wife. Wait until noon, and if to-morrow at noon, at the fork of the Little Bear river, I Jules Beaumont, do not meet you, remember I am waiting for you on another river that has no ending, where there is but one father, who is a kind father, and where there is no complaint, and where there are thousands and thousands of canoes, and all of them filled with angels, and floating in the sunshine forever on its peaceful waters. Always I will wait there, and whenever you come, I will be there to take you in my arms. Hilda, I love you. I love you."—Act, III. At the opera house Thursday, Oct. 6.

"The Girl in the Taxi."

The emperor of Germany is said to have visited the theatre where "The Girl in the Taxi" under the name of "Like Father, Like Son," was playing, when the piece was produced in Berlin last season. Anthony Mars, the author, is known as the emperor's favorite playwright and has been decorated for his many successes, which have set all Europe laughing with delight. "The Girl in the Taxi," is acknowledged as Mars' best work, and contains more side-splitting complications than half a dozen of his other efforts combined.

"The Girl in the Taxi" will be seen at the opera house one night on Saturday, Oct. 8.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health how can she expect to achieve anything? Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands, and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indecate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Great Family Doctor Book, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—1000 pages, answers in Plain English hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know about. Sent free, in plain wrapper to any address on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only, or in cloth binding for 31 stamps.
